1. Oh, the lights out - side, they're as bright as the sun, — they're much bright-er than an - y - one.

Oh, the girls in the queue, yes, they're wait-ing for you, — well, they're wait - ing for their song to be sung.

And when the Bar - row - land_ his - to - ry_ and I'll_ sing you a song or two.

25

Peo-ple they may stop and stare but ba-by I, I just don't care, it's on-ly me and 28

you. And the drink and dance and drugs, you know, it's all a part of the show we go to,

31

— may-be I should tell you that peo-ple they may stop and stare but 34 ba-by, I, just don't care, to-night it's on-ly me and you.

2. Oh, no - thing beats the feel - ing of the high — Bar - row - land ceil - ing when the band starts to play. Won't you buy me a drink and I'll tell her what I think if she gets — in my way. And when the 49

46

night turns to day_ and all_ the peo - ple go a - way, it's not the same, tell me, who's to
